Huntly Hairst

Celebrating Rural Life Together

STOVIES WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

COMPETITION RULES

The competition is open to everyone and no entry form is required

There is no entry fee

Entries can be made on the day

The entry must have been made by the person presenting them for the competition

Competitors must present two batches one for display one for tasting, both labelled with your name and phone no in an envelope attached to the bottom.

The Stovies must be presented ready cooked at the start time of the competition and should be presented in a dish that is microwavable for the judges to taste.

The second batch should be presented for display to the public, this can be interpreted in your own way to best show off your entry.

All entries will be judged separately, i.e. stovies, picked beetroot and oatcakes will all be separate so therefore should not share a plate.

Entries will be judged on appearance, taste and texture.

The judges decision is final.

A stovies challenge shield will be presented to the World Stovies Championship winner. The winner must be willing to appear in the media for festival publicity purposes.